

On a night like tonight
we passed the time away kissing in the moon light
While the preacher
Cried and shouted
At the devil
And your mother sung
I'll fly away Someday I'll fly away
Now I passed my time away in the moon light while the preacher Cries and shouts at the devil
And you sing with our son
I'll fly away Someday I'll fly away
